REFUND POLICY

In order to be eligible for a refund please check the return policy terms at the time of purchasing the product.

We will investigate, mediate, and resolve your claim with an aim to achieving a satisfactory outcome, including refunding the purchase if necessary depending on your agreement with the seller. You have to return with the product in same condition that you receive it, undamaged in any way.

The money will be refunded to the original payment method you've used during the purchase. Once your refund application is approved, Madeinindonesia.com will generally refund your money within 7 business days. However, this may differ depending on your payment method.

If anything is unclear or you have more questions feel free to contact our customer support team at support@madeinindonesia.com or go to our website helpdesk and submit dispute.
